John Marvin Hutcheson, Jr. (1930-2010)

John Marvin Hutcheson, Jr. was born in Birmingham, AL, on October 13, 1930. He attended Birmingham Southern College with a BA in art and biology, and served in the US Navy as a Hospital corpsman during the Korean conflict. He also attended the Medical College of Georgia from 1955 to 1958 and received an MS degree in medical illustration. Some of his classmates were Algernon (Al) Allen and Frances DeRoller (both deceased). John joined the AMI in 1961 making him a member for 49 years; he was an Emeritus member at the time of his passing.

John worked at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN as a medical illustrator for 31 years. In late 1993, he retired and returned to Alabama, settling in his ancestral home of Troy with his dog, Mindy. Those who knew John, remember him as a loyal and extremely thoughtful friend. He had a deep passion for history, stamps, and coins. He was also an extremely active citizen involved with many civic activities. Organizations with which John was involved are too many to list; however, a few that most meaningful to him were: Stamp and Coin Clubs, The Olmsted County Historical Society, Pike Pioneers Museum, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the Military Order of the Stars and Bars.

John passed away on December 21, 2010 in Montgomery, AL. He was the beloved son of John and Bertha Hutcheson, and is survived by his brother Bryan; sons, Yancey and Shelby, and their significant others, Jennifer and Michaela; stepsons, Vic (Samatha) and David; 4 grandchildren, Daniel, Amber, Zandra, Summer, and Brody; and great-granddaughter, Isabella.
