Interested in something INSANE?

The Initiative of the Sequential Artists' Novel Event is a graphic effort put together page by page by people like yourself: talented, imaginative, fun and without a clue ("exquisite corpse" method). We're nearly through our first batch of pages and looking for more artists to join the story.

Visit the OMC page of the Sequential Art Lovers and check out a sneak peek of the work in progress. Specifications and how to sign up are only a click away.
